

The Daily Courant.

Wednesday, December 2. 1702.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated Nov. 30.

Venice, November 17.

Prince Eugene has put Garrisons into Gonzala and St. Felice, and has dispos'd his Troops into Governolo, St. Benedetto, Bersello, Ostiglia, Final in the Modeneze, Revere, Mirandola (which he is fortifying) and other places; 400 of his Men are order'd to take Quarters in Bondino in the Ferrareze.

From the Head-Quarters of the French at Guastalla, Nov. 16. We decamp'd from Luzara in the night before the 5th inst. and march'd in 2 Columns; the Enemy did not know we were in motion till daylight, because we broke up without Beat of Drum. A Troop of their Hussars advanc'd within Musquet-shot of our Rear Guard; and Prince Eugene came likewise, with 10 or 12 Officers only, to observe our March; we arriv'd before Night at Regio. Prince Eugene decamp'd likewise on the 7th. On the 9th we pass'd the Parmegiana over 3 Bridges; And the Van of the Enemy's Army appear'd on the other side of the Secchia. On the 13th we left Novi, and after a March of 2 days arriv'd here, where the Duke de Vendome our General has taken his Quarters. He has sent his Troops into Winter-Quarters in the Countries of Modena and Cremona; but the greater Number into the former; those in the other being intended only to prevent the Incursions of the Hussars, and keep the Ways clear. The Duke of Savoy's Troops went away yesterday, to Winter in their own Country.

From the Harlem Courant, dated Dec. 2.

From the Danube, Nov. 19. General Palfi, with 20 Officers and 500 Men, is got into Nordlingen.

Nordlingen, Nov. 20. The Elector of Bavaria is in motion near this place and about Wallerstein, with a great Body of Men; which made us fear that he had a Design on this City, but we find he is only come to Forrage. Yet it being certain that he has about 50 pieces of Artillery at Neeumarkt, with other Materials fit to be employ'd against a Town, they are afraid at Nuremburg of a Bombardment.

Frankfort, Nov. 26. 'Tis advis'd from Creutznach and the Hondsrug, that the Hereditary Prince of Hesse Cassel is in those parts with several thousand Men; designing as 'tis suppos'd to joyn the Palatine Troops under the Count of Nassau Weylbürg, and take Post on the Moselle and the Noh to hinder the Enemy from getting in the Contributions they have agreed for, or from plundering the Country. Next Campaign the King of the Romans will act as Generalissimo, and Prince Lewis of Baden and the Markgrave of Bareith as Velt-Marshals General.

Coblenz, Nov. 26. The Hessians lye in the Hondsrug near Rhinfeld. 'Tis said they will yet attempt Traerbach, for which purpose 8 Cannons and 2 Mortars are expected from Cassel; and 'tis likely that in a short time some Boats will be sent on the same Service from hence up the Moselle. There are 500 French in Traerbach.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated Nov. 30.

Berlin, Nov. 20. On Advice that the French Garrison of Rhinberg have burnt 3 Houses in the County of Meurs, and thereby broken the Neutrality between that County and the District of Reckelingshausen in the Electorate of Cologne, His Majesty has order'd some of his Troops to take Winter-Quarters in that District. 'Tis said the King will augment his Forces by new Levies, and take some Forreign Troops likewise into his Pay.

From the Harlem Courant, dated Dec. 5.

Hamburg, Dec. 1. They write from Riga, that the Muscovites have besieg'd the Castle of Koxholm, designing when they have taken that, to block up Nerva.

From the Paris Gazette, dated Dec. 2.

Paris, Dec. 2. We have Advice, that on the 9th of last Month, the Assembly of the Estates of Languedoc was open'd at Montpellier; in which it was unanimously resolv'd, to make a Free Gift to the King of 3 Millions, and 2 Millions for the Capitation of that Province.

Paris, Dec. 2. On the 16th of last Month, the King of Spain went on board the Galley commanded by the Sieur de Chaumont Tallemant, and left Genoa, being attended by a Squadron of the King's Gallies commanded by the Marquess de Fourville, and the same day came to an Anchor at Vado; on the 17th he arriv'd before Monaco, and on the 18th at Antibes, where he was receiv'd by the Count de Grignan the King's Lieutenant General in Provence, and saluted with 3 Discharges of the Artillery of the Place. The Sieur des Granges, Master of the Ceremonies, sent by the King to render his Catholick Majesty all the Honours that are due to him, complimented him on the part of the King; but his Majesty desiring not to be retarded in his Passage, would not allow of any Ceremonies. The same day his Majesty gave Audience on board his Galley to the Marquess de Cavaglio, Governor of Nice, sent by the Duke of Savoy to compliment him. His Majesty lay on board that Night, designing to continue his Voyage by Sea to Marseilles; but the Winds being contrary, he set out from thence on the 21st to go thither by Land, and on the 25th arriv'd at Aubagne; the Cardinal d'Etrees and the Count de Marfin accompanying him.

The King of Spain, before his departure from Milan, made a Present to each of the Venetian Ambassadors, of a Diamond Ring worth 350 Pistoles, and his Picture set round with Diamonds to the value of 450 Pistoles. He likewise conferr'd the Dignity of Grandee of Spain on three Milanese Noblemen, viz. The Marquess d'Archinto Nephew to the Cardinal Archbishop of Milan, the Marquess de Trivulcio, and the Count de Serbellon.

From the Harlem Courant, dated Dec. 2.

Rome, Nov. 11. On Sunday the Venetian Ambassador receiv'd an Express from the Senate; upon which his Excellency went immediately to demand Audience of the Pope; which was granted and lasted 2 hours; during which Signior Gozzadini, the Secretary of the Dispatches ad Principes, was call'd in, and the next day the Express was sent back again.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated Nov. 30.

They write from Venice of the 27th, That the Republick make great Preparations of War, both by

Sea

Sea and Land; tho' whether it be to maintain the Neutrality, or to declare in Favour of one of the Parties in the present War, is yet a Secret; The Clergy are oblig'd to furnish 3000 Men, as their Contingent: As fast as the new Troops are levy'd, they are sent to the Terra Firma.

They write from Leghorn of the 10th, That 6 Algerine Gallies had taken all the Vessels which they found in the Harbour of Pino in the Island of Corsica: That afterwards those Corsairs made a Descent there and pillag'd that place, spoil'd all the Wines and other Provisions which they could not carry off, and made Slaves of several of the Inhabitants who had not time enough to get away before they landed.

London, Dec. 1. We hear that Collonel Hales is made Governour of Chelsey College in the room of Sir Thomas Ogle lately deceas'd.

James Craggs Esq; is made Secretary to the Master General of the Ordnance.

The Daily Courant.

Thursday, December 3. 1702.

From the Paris Gazette, dated Dec. 2.

Venice, November 11.

THE 3 Regiments of Horse which Prince Eugene sends back to Germany, are on their march by Troops of 200 Men each, along the Adige towards the Bishoprick of Trent. We have Advice that the Sieur des Chiens de Reffons, (Commander of the French Squadron in the Adriatick, in the absence of the Chevalier de Forbin who is gone to Paris,) took 2 Ships laden with Provisions for the Imperialists, on the 19th instant. We have lately sent 20000 Ducats to Dalmatia to pay the Garrisons in that Country, where General Marino Zani is employ'd in visiting the fortified places, and regulating other Affairs. Letters from Constantinople, by the way of Ragusa, of the 5th, and from Adrianople of the 10th of October, confirm the Death of the Grand Vizier after he had laid down his Office, and that his Successor Cara Mustapha makes strict Enquiry after the Estate which he left behind him; and being of a Martial Disposition, 'tis to be fear'd will excite a new War against the Christians.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated Nov. 30.

Paris, Nov. 24. There is a Talk of a new Promotion of Marshals of France, and that the Duke d'Harcourt, the Count de Tallard, the Marquess de Montrevel, the Count du Thesse, and Monsieur Rosen; as also the Counts de Chateaugenault and d'Etrees for the Sea; are the Persons that will be prefer'd to that Honour. Marshal Catinat is frequently in Conference with the King. Marshal Boufflers makes pressing Instances to the King for leave to resign his Command in the Netherlands; and 'tis suppos'd the Prince of Conti, and under him the Marshal de Villeroy will be sent thither. 'Tis talk'd likewise that a Process will be issued out against the Prince d'Auvergne, for deserting our Army when it was in the Field, and appearing with Sword in hand in the Storming of the Citadel of Venlo.

From the Harlem Courant, dated Dec. 2.

Vienna, Nov. 18. On Advice that the King and Queen of the Romans would leave Prague on the 15th instant, and come hither in 10 days, the Archduke Charles is going Post with 40 Horses in his Retinue to meet them at Snaim in Moravia, to compliment them on their arrival, and from thence to conduct them hither. An Order has been publish'd by Beat of Drum, for the Burghers to appear in Arms that day they make their Entry.

Cologne, Nov. 28. The Baron Van Wiser Chancellor of the Palatinate, died here on Thursday last, in the 57th Year of his Age, leaving 3 Sons and a vast Estate, some say a Million of Money, behind him. The Elector Palatine has appointed his Eldest Son to succeed him in the Chancellorship. 2 or 3000 Men are hard at work on the Line that is making to keep Rhinberg closely block'd up. The little Town of Orfey is begun to be fortified likewise, and is already planted round with Pallisadoes. Of 150 Peasants, most of which were taken in the Castle of Bensburg when Count Tallard ravag'd the Country between Bonn and this place, all but 30 are dead in their Confinement in Bonn. The Garrison of Bonn work continually on the Fortifications of that place.

From the Harlem Courants, dated Dec. 2 & 5.

Warsaw, Nov. 15. The French Ambassador, Monsieur du Heron, having often been order'd to depart from this City to Thorn, which he not regarding, but continuing here the better to carry on his Intrigues in the Absence of the King, Last night, betwixt 12 and 1, as he was returning home from an Entertainment, to which he had that day been invited, he was set upon in the Street by 30 Men, and carry'd off in his own Coach; whether to Thorn, or elsewhere, is yet unknown. This Action has given occasion to a great deal of Discourse, and tho' some will have it to be done by his Majesty's order, others would persuade us that he knew nothing of it.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated Dec. 2.

Hamburg, Nov. 28. Our Advices from Warlaw, are doubtful whether the Sweeds will advance to that City, or continue in the places where they are at present canton'd. The Senators are gone home from Warlaw, the Diet being adjourn'd to the 15th of January. It has been reported there, that the King intends to make good all the Damage that has been done by his Saxon Troops: Mean time the Saxons are exacting heavy Contributions of the Starosty of Wielau. The General of Great Poland would not suffer the Saxons to take Quarters in Posen; but sent in some of his own Troops to defend that place. 'Tis said Oginsky has lately routed a Party of 500 Sweeds.

Wesel, Nov. 28. Yesterday a Drummer came hither from Gelder, with a Letter from the Commander of that place; demanding that a certain Citizen of Gelder, who some days ago was taken within the Line before Rhinberg and brought hither, should be set at liberty, on pretence that he is a Dragoon. But this Demand will be refus'd, for that he was taken cloath'd like a Citizen, and not in a Military Habit, and is suspected of being a Spy. Another Drummer is come out of Rhinberg, to reclaim the Governour's Servant, who was taken going to Paris with Letters; but this will not be granted neither; because after he had denied that he had any more Letters, one was found sew'd up in the collar of his Shirt, which was written in Cyphers, All Persons in this part of the Country, are forbidden on pain of Death, the holding any Correspondence with the Town of Rhinberg.

Plymouth, Nov. 29. Yesterday came in Her Majesty's Ship the Lizard from St. Helena; the St. John Baptist of Bourdeaux from Newfoundland, taken by the Medway, of about 200 Tons, laden with dry Fish; and the Post-Boy of and from Cork, for Lisbon.

The Ships from Ireland advise, that several Men of War and Transport Ships sail'd thence the 23d instant, with Soldiers for the West-Indies.

Dartmouth,

Dartmouth, Nov. 29. Yesterday came in the Torbay and the Rye Frigate from the Eastward, and landed a Company of Soldiers of Colonel Seymour's Regiment, and are since come to this place in their way to Plymouth. This day came in a Ketch from the Bank of Newfoundland, being taken on Wednesday last by a Dutch Privateer.

IN York-Buildings, this present Thursday being the 3d of December, the Italian Confort will be perform'd, with Additions of New Songs by the Gentlewoman, and Symphonies by Signior Gasparine, at the Desire of several Persons of Quality.
